As a result of the AMA, Vale must achieve accessibility generally and meet requirements in the following areas by the listed compliance date:

1. Accessibility Standards for Customer Service (November 1, 2018)
2. Employment (Coming in 2019)
3. Transportation (Coming in 2019)
4. Built Environment (Coming in 2019)
5. Information and communication (Coming in 2019)

Responsibilities• Employees:

- Respect the diversity of people in the workplace and behave in a manner that is respectful of others.
- Our continued success requires that we utilize everyone's skills and knowledge to the fullest, without discrimination or harassment based on disability, or any other protected ground under Human Rights legislation. Discrimination and harassment will not be tolerated.
- If you have a disability and require assistance in order to perform your work, move around the premises, follow safety and emergency procedures, etc., notify your supervisor as soon as possible.
- In the case of perceived harassment or discrimination for yourself or another person, raise your concern promptly to your supervisor or HR Business Partner.

• Managers, Supervisors:

- Uphold the principles of the AMA.
- Respond promptly to accessibility concerns for employees with disabilities.
- Respect the needs of employees to use assistive devices pertaining to their disability (e.g., wheelchairs, assistive listening devices).
- Consult with Human Resources or other departments such as Occupational Medicine when and as required to support the accommodation of employees with disabilities and the administration of this procedure.

• HR Business Partner:

- Support client groups in the administration of this procedure.
